The launch of Adinath Public School

Shri N. K. Sethi
Hon'ble President

The vision and dream of Hon'ble Shri N.K. Sethi, President, Shri Digamber Jain Sanskrit Shiksha Samiti, got manifested in the opening of a new educational venture, Adinath Public School, in Sanganer. The school was launched on July 2, 2012 with Class KG to Class III to begin with.

Mrs. Vandana Jain, a senior teacher from Mahaveer Public School, Jaipur, an enthusiastic educationist, who is keen to work for the cause of children, was chosen by Shri Sethi to take the charge of the school. Having an experience of over 18 years in the field of teaching, the Principal is committed to work passionately for the growth of the school.

With a reasonably low and affordable fee structure, Adinath Public School, is striving to build holistic individuals. With love, care and warmth, blended with the sanskars of the great land, we are sanguine that the school shall carve a niche in the times to come.

Reliving Independence

Kiddoz salute the tricolour

The Independence Day was a day of great joy and fun. The children were painted saffron, white and green on their cheeks, tied colourful wrist bands and wore tiranga caps to mark the day.

Distinguished members of the Managing Committee graced the occasion. The Chief Guest for the occasion was Shri Sudhanshu Ji Kasliwal, a renowned personality and philanthropist and Shri Prakash Ji Dewan Sahib graced the chair as the Chairperson. Hon'ble Shri N.K. Sethi, President of Shri Digamber Jain Sanskrit Shiksha Samiti, extended a warm welcome to all the guests and Shri R.C. Papriwal, Hony. Secretary apprised all, with the developments and progress of the Samiti.

The Chief Guest along with all other members hoisted the tricolour as the tunes of 'Vande mataram' reverberated in the campus.

The little children of Adinath Public School extended a captivating show much to the amazement of all. Master Yash Saini carried the school flag and handed it over to the Chief Guest who fixed it in the pot. Miss Chanchal Saini delivered the national pledge with great diction and clarity. A nice colourful and coordinated drill by the children stole the show.

Mrs. Vandana Jain, Principal, presented a motivating address and assured everyone to lift the school to greater heights.

The Chief Guest extended his felicitations to all and blessed the children. Sweets and laddoos were distributed to all.

O happy childhood! blessed youth!
But once we know thy potent power;
But once we live all careless free;
No cross to mar our love-lit bower.

Rakhi celebration-
Strengthening bonds of love

The Diwali celebration marked the day with great fun and enjoyment. It was a special assembly in the morning. The Principal and teachers explained the importance of the big Hindu festival and also called upon the children to say 'No to Crackers'.

The children displayed their greeting cards and beautifully painted and decorated earthen diyas prepared as a craft activity. Tilak was applied on all the children and auspicious moli thread was tied on all. The children lit the diyas and placed them in the school premises with the help of their teachers. Sweets were distributed to all.

Annual Sports Day

All work and no play
Makes Jack a dull boy

An amazing and fun-filled celebration marked the Annual Sports Day of the school. The day began with excitement and exuberance. The entire playground was beautifully and befittingly decorated and marked with tracks for the events.

Hon'ble Shri R.C. Papiwal, Hony. Secretary was the Chief Guest. Dr. S.C. Jain, Principal, Sanskrit College was the Guest of Honour.

The Principal, Mrs. Vandana Jain, extended a warm welcome to all the guests and parents, present on the day. The school leader and Captains marched gracefully holding their respective flags to the tunes of military band. The Head Boy, Master Yash Saini delivered the Sports Day pledge which was repeated by the children confidently. An 'On the Spot Marching' was displayed on the popular number 'Nanha munna rahi hu...'. The children also sang "We shall overcome" with zeal.

The Chief Guest blessed all the children and inspired them to play with the spirit of sportsmanship.

The events began amidst loud cheer of the students. Some eye-catching and interesting races were planned for all age groups. The first, second and the third positions were honoured by the Chief Guest with gold, silver and bronze medals respectively along with certificates. A few races were also organized for the parent mothers, in which they participated happily. The fun-filled day ended with a treat of bananas, biscuits and sweets.
