Janamashtami Celebration

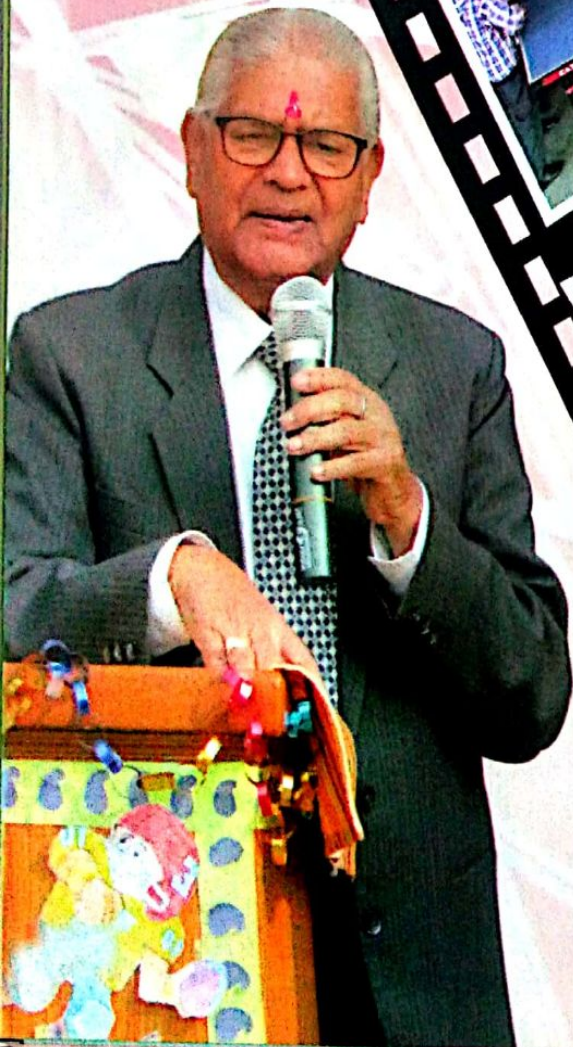

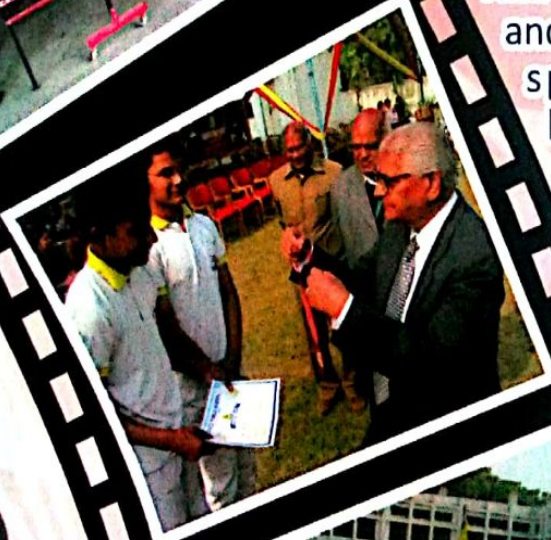

The fragrance and gaiety of Indian festive celebrations are unparalleled. The vibrancy and colour of our festivals speak manifold about our secular composite culture. Schools are the platforms where the legacy of traditions is being transferred to the new generations.

The Pre Primary kids celebrated the Krishna Janamashtami festival on 7th Sep. 2015 with great fervor. It was a delight to watch the lovely kids, not only catwalk as beautiful Radhas & Krishnas, but also perform on the tunes of popular numbers.

Annual Sports Day

*Champions are not made in gyms,
Champions are made from something
They have deep inside them –
a desire, a dream and vision to win*

Trips and Excursions

*The rustling of a wild bird's wings; a star, a flower, a gush of rain,
The sight of sad or joyous things; oft makes me seem a child again,
With voiceless eloquence they come; bright phantoms of my childhood's home.*

Short trips and excursions are well integrated with the school curriculum. They not only break the monotony of class room study but also enhance the learning of the children in myriad ways.
